

EAT Pennines – Case Study

Kaii Laing – 18 years old from Walmersley, Bury, Lancashire.

Kaii is a young man with profound learning difficulties and communication issues. He has spent the past 14 weeks working with us and we are currently looking to continue working with him in the form of a supported internship.

How long were you unemployed before you started working with EAT Pennines?

I have never worked, I have been at school, Elms Bank Specialist School in Prestwich.

What challenges have you faced?

I am very shy, and I struggle to speak to people.

How have we helped you?

By being nice, and by being patient. I feel better talking to people.

What have you enjoyed working with EAT Pennines?

Everybody is nice. I have made friends and I like working with food.

What would you say to a young person thinking of starting one of traineeships?

It is good, you should do it as it can help you.
